iLen Attends LocWorld27 in Shanghai

LocWorld27 was held on April 13-15, 2015, in Shanghai, China. The theme of the event was the Internet of Things. This was the second time LocWorld has been held in Shanghai and it once again attracted many localization service providers, from home and abroad, and localization departments of international companies. As a member of the Translators Association of China, iLen was obviously not going to miss such an opportunity to hear the latest industry news and communicate with associates in the same field.

Michael, our language department manager, was iLen's representative at the Shanghai event. During the meeting, many experts and scholars, including the Vice President of the Translators Association of China,

Mr. Huang Youyi, commented on the localization industry, and discussed the latest technology trends, including Internet applications and machine translation. In addition, Michael took the opportunity to connect with friends, both old and new, and establish contact with foreign companies, laying the foundation for future business cooperation.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Caring for Children

Children's Day was celebrated on June 1 and we once again focused our efforts on Geletuo Primary School in Seda county, Ganzi Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture, Sichuan Province. The books we donated last year provided 56 children with extracurricular books, but there is still much work to be done to improve school conditions there. All kinds of school supplies are urgently needed.

After we find out what the school needed most, our company bought school supplies, such as school bags, rulers, pencils, water color pens and writing cases. We called for donations and we had a great response from our colleagues in Shenzhen and Chengdu with money and supplies donations. On June 1st, the children received the 56 packs of school supplies we mailed in advance. Although this is only a small step to providing the school with what it needs, we will continue to care for China's children to the best of our abilities.

Testimonials

I'd like to say "Thank You" for your excellent work on the Weekly News Letters!

I've been working at our Hong Kong (Greater China Region) and Singapore (APAC Headquarter) office this week. The content team and marketing team from both offices have specifically mentioned to me that they are very happy about the Simplified Chinese translation quality of the Weekly Product Updates (the news letters). The newsletter goes out weekly via email to our important enterprise clients in China, and our teams take the language quality very seriously. The project requires very quick turn-around and you manage to meet the deadline with high quality. That's awesome! Great job of the translators, editors, and the PMs who have been working on the news letters.

Thank you, and keep up the good work!

Team Corner

Venturing out into the Wider World

It was time to shut down our computers, pack our travelling bags and set out! This time, the iLeners were off to Zhanjiajie, where James Cameron got inspiration and took filming scenes for Avatar. The spectacular mountains and marvelous landscape of Zhanjiajie have timeless beauty; nature has carved out stunning scenery everywhere. On top of the mountain, you are just a step away from a bottomless chasm. Looking far into the distance or down below, there are magnificent views everywhere. Not only is it exhilarating, but good for building courage too! We scaled the peaks of Zhanjiajie together and walked through the glass walkway on Tianmen mountain. We also witnessed a colleague propose to his girlfriend in a wonderfully romantic moment.

There were weary legs after four days of difficult climbing and physical challenges, but none of this affected the happy mood. It was great to be away from the bustling city, enjoying the beauty of nature, and it left us with cherished memories. The world is so big and we look forward to embarking on many new journeys together!
