

iLen Awards its Top Performers in 2016

Dedication, diligence, enterprise and enthusiasm are qualities the Chinese value greatly. To recognize the example set for all employees to follow, iLen awarded its top performers of 2016. Cary from the Project Management department, Sally from the Engineering department, and Grace and Sara from the Language department were honored as "Outstanding Employees of the Year". In addition, Stacey, Dream and Elodie from the Language department received the "Greatest Progress" award of 2016.

iLen saw significant growth in 2016 with a new branch established in Changsha, central China. Despite fierce market competition, iLen made steady progress and successfully achieved its annual business goal. This was down to the hard work and example set by our 2016 award winners as well as the entire iLen team. The company sincerely appreciates the effort made by each member of the iLen family in 2016. We will continue to join hands to focus on our customers and reach for greater heights in 2017!

iLen's Spring Festival Gala

In January, just before the traditional Chinese New Year, iLen held annual parties in Shenzhen, Chengdu and Changsha to celebrate the biggest Chinese festival of the year. The three parties all had their own distinctive flavor and respective highlights.

The newly-established Changsha branch organized a cozy family dinner, which later turned into a party as it was also the birthday of one of the employees. At Chengdu's party, colleagues performed a costume drama called "Legend of the White Snake," which was written, directed and acted by themselves. The hilarious script and wonderful performances had the audience in stitches and ensured a fantastic atmosphere. Unlike previous years, no shows were performed this time in Shenzhen headquarters, but our colleagues had a lovely night at the trendy Home Party club in Shenzhen. They teamed up in small groups and had fun doing various recreational activities.

All three parties proved to be intimate and fun get-togethers for the iLen family, significantly building friendships and confirming our positive expectations for iLen's future. We look forward to a 2017 filled with happiness and prosperity.
