

ILEN'S CHEONGSAM NIGHT ANNUAL PARTY

To the tune of classic songs that evoke old Shanghai, iLen's Cheongsam Night themed annual party kicked off. iLen employees wore various Republican-period clothes like cheongsam, changshan and suits for this nostalgic "Shanghai Night" style party. Colleagues from the Changsha Branch came to Shenzhen to participate in the annual party this year, which made the event a great celebration. And Chengdu branch also had their own wonderful Cheongsam Night gala. In keeping with the "Shanghai Night" theme, there were song and dance performances in this style. To familiar music tunes, our conscientious work colleagues transformed from their work personas and put on some intoxicating dance performances, like "Nightlife In Shanghai," "Pipaxing," "Blossom of Women" and "Rose Rose I love you," as well as a humorous, self-written, self-directed drama called "Lust, Caution." The shows were excellent, and the atmosphere became increasingly electric as time went on. An exciting raffle brought the party to a climax.

The annual party is a fantastic celebration for iLen employees, and every year we celebrate it in a different way. Our iLen team members demonstrate excellence outside work as much as during business hours. And as an energetic, innovative company, our aim is to work creatively and provide customers with high-quality, dedicated services.

I'd like to thank the translators and editors who worked on the email below and the email (screenshot) attached. These very high-pri emails require short turnaround times and high quality, as they are directly sent to our resellers, agencies, and clients. As the turnaround is so short, this type of tasks don't go through in-house reviews before they are sent out, but the translation quality barely suffers. We know that our clients are happy with these email updates.

Please pass my appreciation on to the team and thank them for consistently ensuring the translation quality of our zh_CN marketing content.

ILEN'S PERSON OF THE YEAR FOR 2018

An outstanding team greatly relies on its excellent people and their dedicated efforts. In 2018 we had many distinguished employees who made great progress and performed to a high standard. At the annual awards ceremony, Sally Wang from our Shenzhen Head Office and Sara Li from Chengdu branch were awarded "Outstanding Employee Award for 2018"; Scarlett Zhang, Sibyl Hu, Belinda Du (Chengdu branch) and Serena Zhang (Changsha branch) won the "Most Improved Employee for 2018." They proved that extraordinary results can be achieved through everyday work. They epitomize the iLen ethic and demonstrate the professionalism, dedication and perseverance that we all strive for. Our general manager Mr. Anderson Wang and Operations Manager Ms. Windy Wu presented certificates, flowers and prizes to the award winners.

We were pleased to see that this year's winners included both old and new faces. We hope that these role models will encourage every employee in their efforts in 2019!
